

В статье с исторических позиций рассмотрены способы прекращения судимости, их понятие и отличие друг от друга. Делается вывод, что различают два способа прекращения состояния судимости – погашение или снятие, раскрываются особенности их применения.

In article the historical positions were considered for termination of criminal records, their concept and difference from each other. It is concluded that there are two ways to end the state of conviction – redemption or withdrawal, the specifics of their application.

In the article from a historical point of view ways of cease of criminal convictions, their concept and difference from each other are examined. Conclusions were made that there are two ways to cease conviction – redemption or removal, the peculiarities of their using are shown.