

В представленной статье раскрыто отношение российского государства того времени к душевнобольным. Дано описание их содержания и юридической ответственности.

The article gives the description of the exiled and hard labor prisoners' itinerary to places of enduring the punishment, their medical treatment while the itinerary and ways of preventing their escapes. The attitude of the Russian State of that time towards the mentally sick prisoners is revealed in the article. The description of their confinement and legal responsibility is given.